

Speaker

Expectations:

- 1) Passionate about what they do
- 2) Provide age appropriate presentation
- 3) Sensitive to the needs of young people in the Dubuque Community

For more information about the speaker topics see:

Google Dubuque NAACP

Or

<http://www.dubuquenaacp.com>

To make arrangement for a speaker, please contact :

Tom Lo Guidice, Ph.D
loguidice@fastmail.fm
Mary Gitau, Ph.D
mwigitau17@gmail.com

The Speaker's Bureau Series is sponsored by Dubuque Chapter of National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)

SPEAKERS SERIES

A Resource for Upper Elementary,
Middle & High School Curriculum. Also
for adult audiences

Values Beyond School

The purpose of the Speaker's Bureau Series is to promote an awareness of social concerns and the role of people of color nationally and internationally. The speakers' interest is to create dialogue with the younger generation.

The purpose is not to promote a particular perspective or NAACP agenda.

Anthony Allen. a) A Brief History of Civil Rights: The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) Dubuque Branch & b) Exploring race and Gender Concerns. Anthony works at Alta Vista school and is President Dubuque Chapter NAACP

Karla Wildberger and Dean Boles. African American History Represented by Tokens, Congressional Gold Medals, Commemorative Coins and US Savings Bonds. Karla and Dean are active Dubuque citizens.

Dr. Mary Gitau. The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.: A National and International Perspective & b) Hidden Figures. Mary is an assistant professor of Social Work at Clarke University.

Dr. Henry Grubb-topics . a) Psychological Effects of Racism, b) History of Racism & c) The Maroons: Free People of Color in America. Henry is an emeritus professor from the University of Dubuque.

Tom Lo Guidice, PhD: The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr in Iowa: A Message for Today. Tom is an emeritus professor of multicultural education from the University of Wisconsin-Platteville.

R.R.S. Stewart .MARH,MUEP a) History of Civil Rights in Iowa & b) Immigration Issues. R.R.S. is an adjunct faculty at Loras College and Northeast Iowa Community College (NICC)

Amy Ressler, MFA: African American folk tales-The history and stories of Br'er Rabbit. Amy is a former professor of Theater at University of Dubuque and now a professor of Theatre at California State University-Bakersfield . She will be available for summer programs.

Dr. John Stewart: a) Hidden Highlights of African American U.S. History, b) African Americans and the G.I. Bill & c) White Privilege Without White Guilt. John is an emeritus professor of Communications and Dean from the University of Dubuque.

Lynn Sutton: a) Food Desserts in Urban America and Urban Dubuque , & b) Constitutional Rights: Guidelines for Youth Talking with the Police. Lynn is a former City Council member and community activist.

Promoting knowledge, skills and dispositions